

Saginaw UMC Presents
Five Practices of Fruitful Congregations
CHURCH-WIDE EVENT

Radical Hospitality - Passionate Worship - Intentional Faith Development
Risk-Taking Mission and Service - Extravagant Generosity

Above are the Five Practices of vital, fruitful congregations. These ideas aren't secret or new, but they are the practices that can lead to excellence and growth in the life of our church. And they are the practices we will be focusing on CHURCH-WIDE for five consecutive weeks, beginning January 10th and ending February 7th in the Fellowship Hall at 9:45 a.m.

Several of the staff participated in an exciting Central Texas Conference event lead by Bishop Robert Schnase who wrote the book.

Just imagine what can happen if everyone in our congregation will spend five weeks—just thirty-five days—reading, praying, discussing, and focusing on these Five Practices. God can change individuals, entire families, and our whole church—thus changing the difference we can make in and beyond our surrounding community.

Rev. Mel Bishara will be preaching a sermon series that deals with these five practices.

This is a church-wide event. Youth, adult Sunday school classes, as well as those not participating in a Sunday school class will be included.
