Jeremiah 18:6

"O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter does?" declares the Lord. "Like clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand, I house of Israel."

Rachel lives in Bryan, Texas where she and her husband own Joy Pottery. Rachel is the youngest of six children born to Baptist Missionaries to Hong Kong. Having both a BFA and a MFA from the University of North Texas, she has worked in studio in New York, Arizona, and Texas. Rachel says that she is not surprised that she is a potter, but she is amazed at how God has used pottery in her life. Believing that clay is a medium that is incredibly versatile, so individual, yet universal at the same time. Discover the richness of the layers of meaning in the portrayal of the potter and the clay by observing the work of a potter firsthand. You will be awed and amazed by the insights into the hand of God in your own life through this experience.
